PLANNING SESSION FOR A COOPERATIVE PLAN TO COORDINATE A NETWORK OF SERVICES AND PROGRAMS FOR THE DEAF

On February 22 at 2:00 p.m. in the Martin Luther King Memorial Library, room level a-5, there will be a planning session for organizations serving the deaf. This will be the first of several meetings designed to come up with a cooperative plan to coordinate a network of services and programs for deaf people in this area. Public Library systems in the D.C. area, Organizations serving the deaf, and schools want to perform services and create materials to meet the needs of every deaf person. Such a cooperative effort will make it much easier to fill these needs. For more information you can contact Alice Hagemeyer, Community Librarian for the Deaf at the Martin Luther King Library.

Alice's TTY number is 727-2255.
